

ICF CORE COMPETENCY BRUSH-UP AND PRACTICE PROGRAM

If you are a credentialed coach who needs CCE units in the Core Competency category, this program is for you. This is a collaborative group experience for coaches who are renewing an International Coach Federation credential. The group is open to ACC, PCC and MCC credential holders, who want to brush up on the ICF Competencies, practice their coaching and receive feedback from Master Certified Coach and ICF Assessor Cathy Shaughnessy.

YOU ARE ELIGIBLE TO PARTICIPATE IN THIS PROGRAM IF YOU:

- Currently hold an ACC, PCC or MCC credential in good standing with the ICF
- Are looking for ways to refresh your knowledge and skills in the coach core competencies
- Need to earn CCE units in the Core Competency Category for credential renewal
- Are open to practicing your coaching with peers and receiving feedback from
- You are not already submitting mentor coaching hours for CCE units at renewal time

Over the course of five sessions, in a series of 90-minute group mentor coaching Zoom meetings, you will earn 7 CCE units and you will receive:

- A review of the new ICF Coach Competencies and Markers
- Opportunities to hear others in the group coach and receive verbal feedback
- Opportunities to coach and receive verbal feedback on your coaching
- A certificate of completion for the ICF indicating that you have earned 7 CCE units
